Government Code Section 54956.9
POTENTIAL LITIGATION: ONE POTENTIAL
CASE

Mayor Moyer reported that the Council would continue the closed session after the regular session adjourns.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE:

Mayor Jeff Moyer asked Fire Chief Mike Bachmeyer to lead the Pledge of Allegiance and the assembly joined in.

CITIZEN'S COMMENTS:

Councilmember Flynn made the following statement:

The Red Bluff City Council does not always let the public know what is happening at city hall, partly because we cannot discuss personnel issues or information provided in closed session cannot be made public. We have given City Manager Martin Nichols direction as a Council, not as individual members of this body.

Most of the time an issue is brought before the Council and a decision is made and that is the end, it's a done deal. We have had to make some very difficult decisions recently; some individual Councilmembers are acting as if it was not a majority decision.

Mr. Nichols serves at the pleasure of the City Council and does not take direction from individual members as some think he should. We should not attempt to micro-manage the city, he was hired to do the everyday managing of the City of Red Bluff and he must be allowed to do this.

PROCLAMATIONS:

1. Lights on After School, Karla Stroman, Tehama County Department of Education

Councilmember Brown read and awarded Karla Stroman with the Proclamation
