CHARGING FOR POLICE TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT COSTS

Martin Nichols, City Manager reviewed the staff report and gave staff's recommendation that the City Council re-consider a policy recommendation by the Budget Committee to adopt a policy of charging those events that generate Revenue for the promoters, the City's full costs of providing Police Department traffic enforcement services.

Bill Moule of the Chamber of Commerce, Harry Dudley, Mike Dudley, Corky Kramer and Rob Moore from the Red Bluff Round Up Association, Mark Eidman of the Red Bluff Fair Grounds and Don Williams, resident of Red Bluff, spoke on behalf of their organizations and stated that their organizations are not in favor of adding an extra fee for Red Bluff Police Department Traffic Control during the events at the fair grounds. They feel this extra cost will make it almost impossible to keep these events going at the Red Bluff Fair Grounds. The money needs to come from somewhere else within the City of Red Bluff to pay for the over time of these Police Officers for Traffic Control.

Councilmember Schmid stated the Transit Occupancy Tax was supposed to be used to pay for the Traffic Control.

M/S/C Councilmember Brown and Flynn to send this Item back to the Budget Committee to see if money can come from else where.
